Cost Surveys for Financial Aid Due Feb. 27

Applications for financial aid during the 1969-70 academic year were mailed to students last week. Middlers and seniors received a questionnaire on living costs as well.

James E. Andrews, Assistant to the President and the administrative staff person responsible for financial aid programs, emphasized the importance of the cost survey for the 1969-70 applications.

"The Seminary is increasingly dependent upon denominational programs to maintain the current level of support," he said. "We are required to get fresh figures on living costs before we can project our total budget picture for next year."

Seniors are being asked to complete only the cost survey and return it to Andrews' office. Juniors are re-

Field Education Opportunities Listed

Job placements for next fall begin soon, according to Jim Rettig, student representative of the field education staff. "Not all churches interested in having a student will send ministers to the campus to conduct interviews, but have requested that the field education staff make recommendations about interested students who may then go to the churches for interviews," he remarked. Description cards are listed outside the field education office. For those marked 1-100, the minister will be on campus for personal interviews. For those numbered 101 and above, students must obtain recommendations from the field education staff.

WINESKIN DEADLINE

Friday noon, 6 Hodge Hall, for material to be published the following Friday. Editor: Jane McClure.

Watermulder Heads Building Drive

The Reverend Dr. David B. Watermulder, 1945 graduate of Princeton Theological Seminary, has been appointed by the Seminary's Board of Trustees to serve as General Chairman of a committee which will head the $1,290,000 capital funds campaign for a new residence hall. The dormitory, the first built by the Seminary in a century, will be named Erdman Hall, in honor of Charles R. and Estelle Pardee Erdman.

A Trustee and alumnus of the Seminary, Dr. Watermulder is Senior Minister of the Bryn Mawr Presbyterian Church and is currently President of the Board of National Missions of the United Presbyterian Church, U.S.A.

Named as Honorary Chairman was the Reverend Dr. Peter K. Emmons, alumnus and Trustee Emeritus of the Seminary, a long-time friend of Dr. and Mrs. Erdman. Dr. Emmons was pastor of the Westminster Church of Scranton, Pennsylvania, from 1927 until his retirement in 1958 and served for many years as President of the Seminary's Board of Trustees.

The architect, selected long before the names to be honored were considered, is Michael P. Erdman, grandson of Charles and Estelle Erdman. The building will be erected on the site of the Seminary house occupied by the Erdmans during his more than fifty year association with the institution.

General Assembly Moderator Preaches Wednesday

The Reverend Dr. John Coventry Smith, Moderator of the 180th General Assembly of the United Presbyterian in the United States of America, will preach in Miller Chapel, Wednesday, April 9, at 10 a.m.

Smith has been Secretary and Associate General Secretary of the Board of Foreign Missions of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America and General Secretary of the Commission on Ecumenical Mission and Relations of the United Presbyterian Church in the United States of America.

He was named one of the six presidents of the World Council of Churches at the Fourth Assembly meeting in July, 1968, at Uppsala, Sweden—the first United Presbyterian to hold this office.

Smith received his A.B. from Muskingum College, his B.D. and Master of Theology degrees from Pittsburgh-Xenia Seminary, and a Master of Arts degree from Hartford Seminary Foundation, Hartford, Connecticut.

Commons Concerns

The Faith and Life Committee of the Student Association has outlined regulations for the use of the Stuart Hall Commons. Anyone interested in having a special event in the Commons should contact Dick Nathan (chairman), phone 452-9321, or Kent Smith (manager), 205 Brown Hall. According to Dick Nathan, events held there "should be open to the entire student body and should be of a creative rather than a lecture format."
